

CAREER ORIENTATION PROGRAMME-2019-20

Ms. S. Santha Kumari, Lecturer in English addressing the students

Student participants

Career Orientation Programme by Mr. N. Victor David Dinakaran, Senior Lecturer, Dept. of English

CAREER ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Report

Every Academic Year, We the Department of English have been inspiring students in moulding their academic careers with English language and literature as career options in their Master's.

As part of it we take up orientation classes for all final degree students to sensitize them about various courses offered all major Indian Universities about various programmes in English such as English Literature; English Language; Translation Studies; Media Communication; Gender Studies; Applied Linguistics; Culture Studies; Mass Communication; TESOL; ESL and Comparative Literature. If there goal is to be a trainer in English, we shall further guide them what they should be doing during their graduation and after their graduation.

A similar programme was also taken up by the Department of English for all the Final Year Degree Students from 21st June to 1st July, 2019 under the Supervision of Mr. E. Vara Prasad, Head, Dept. of English; Mr. N.V.D. Dinakaran, Senior Lecturer, Dept. of English and Ms. S. Santha Kumari, Lecturer, Dept. of English have conducted the Orientation Programme. Mr. N.V.D. Dinakaran, Senior Lecturer, Dept. of English has compiled the content. Dr. Ch. Anuradha, Mrs. E. Kalavathi, Mr. B. Mohan Teja coordinated the programme.