

Service to Pilgrims

03.10.2024 TO 12.10.2024

The NSS volunteers of KBN College dedicated their efforts to serve pilgrims during the Dasara festival at Sri Durga Malleswara Swami Devasthanam from October 3rd to October 12th, 2024. The Dasara Mahotsavam, celebrated with grandeur, unfolded at the Sri Durga Malleswara Temple, the second-largest temple in the state, attracting over 25 lakh devotees. 50 student volunteers from our college actively participated in providing valuable services at the temple. The range of activities undertaken by our students included maintaining orderly queues, distributing water sachets, delivering food packets, awareness about cyber crimes, traffic awareness to the Pilgrims and assisting the physically challenged and elderly attendees. The NSS wing of our university considered the ten-day festival as a special occasion, and it was heartening to witness our students' enthusiastic commitment in three shifts, ensuring round the-clock assistance during the festivities. The significance of their services was duly acknowledged by eminent authorities including Police Department & Temple Authorities for the dedicated efforts of our KBN College volunteer. Also appreciated by KBN College Management, Dr.V.Narayana Rao, Administrative Officer SKPVV Institutions, Dr.G.Krishna Veni, Principal, KBN College, and KBN College Vice Principals Sri.P.L.Ramesh, Dr.M.Venkateswara Rao, Dr.K.Rama Krishna and other Administrators and Staff members.

The coordination of this impactful initiative was led by our KBN College NSS Units Programme Officers: Sri D. Pavan Kumar, Sri J.Srinivas, Ms.Kalma Begum and Sri N. Samba Siva Rao.NSS members Ms.G.Sita Ratnam and other members.
