

DISHA ACT AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON CHILD ABUSE, PROPER USING OF PHONE, DISHA ACT, ONLINE ABUSE - 8TH FEBRUARY, 2023

Disha police station SI K Purnima ramani said that youth can become a big threat to society if he becomes slave to intoxication. NSS Sections, Navajivan Bala Bhavan, Secretariat Women Police Sections organized an awareness program on the dangers of intoxicants to the youth in the seminar hall of the college on 8.2.23(Wednesday). On this occasion, Ms.SI Purnima Ramani said that the youth will lose their lives if they make even a slight mistake. She suggested that they should use the Disha app in case of threat and danger. She advised the youth to use Smartphones and social media for a good cause. Several Case studies from her experience were discussed to elaborate the sensitive issues faced by the youth. Clinical Psychologist Dr. Shilanikolas said that intoxication is available to the youth in many forms. Youth should set the best goal for their life and move forward. She explained how it affects family and society. SI Subbarao, Navajeevan Balabhavan Psychologist Anusha, Secretariat Women Police Ms.CH Sanghavi, B Vineeta and others addressed in the program. NSS PO Sri V Seshagiri Rao conducted the program, POs Sri D Pawankumar, Sri N Sambasiva Rao and others participated.

